IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

PENN ENGINEERING &

v.

MANUFACTURING CORP., : CIVIL ACTION

Plaintiff

PENINSULA COMPONENTS, INC., : No. 19-513

Defendant

ORDER

AND NOW, this \( \sum_{O}' \) day of January, 2024, upon consideration of Peninsula Components' Motion to Bifurcate (Doc. No. 374), Penn Engineering's Response in Opposition (Doc. No. 378), Peninsula's Reply (Doc. No. 380), Penn Engineering's Surreply (Doc. No. 382), and for the reasons set forth in the accompanying memorandum, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion (Doc. No. 374) is GRANTED. The jury will hear issues on liability only, and the Court will hear damages issues, if needed.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that there is no claim for punitive damages operative at this time, but the parties are permitted to move the Court to include/exclude punitive damages from trial based on their submission of facts of record as of two weeks before the trial's start date.
